No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 21, 1864

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee.

For Presidential Electors,

Reconstruction.

By the telegram published this morning it will be perceived that the Copperheads are becoming alarmed at the popular expressions in favor of the plan of reconstruction adopted by the President and Congress, and are already holding a caucus, composed of choice material, for the purpose of devising a plan which would be—if it were possible to crowd such an abortion down the throats of the free North—more charitable to their unhappy and imperilled friends in rebellion. Their first proposition, to wit: the return of the seceded States to the Union, will no doubt eventually prevail, but not in the mode they contemplate. These must be first divested of all sovereign capacity, and pass through a probationary territorial existence, unless in their State character a legal majority shall clearly and emphatically renounce the act of secession, and renew allegiance to the Union under a constitution so amended as to forever preclude slavery, or involuntary servitude except by due process of law upon criminal charges. Until such constitutions are adopted by the sections in revolt, territorial organizations, with stringent martial law, would be simple justice.

The second proposition—the assumption of the Confederate debt, to be paid by the North, is a project which could emanate only from the brain of a Copperhead or an idiot. The blood and treasure we have spent in the conflict is in excess of any demand that could have been made upon the North, had England and France not taken the occasion to impose obligations for help on the South, in the hope of just such a final adjustment as is now proposed. We should of course be required to pay for the pirates which have destroyed our commerce, and perhaps pension the British subjects by which they were manned.

The third proposition is as untenable as the one we have just considered, without a concession from the rebels that all those slaves who were absent from their masters, who were attached to the armies on either side, or who contributed by their labor at any time during the progress of the rebellion to support the armies in the field, the families of rebels, or aided in any manner to advance the cause of the South were by such acts lawfully emancipated; in which event the "statu quo ante bellum" would not apply to a single human being, unless to a few unconverted traitors still retaining the slaves of ignorance and unholy desire.

We are glad to know that the callers of the Chicago Convention are, even at so late an hour, preparing to expose the cloven hoof and barbed tail. No more patent evidence of treason and unqualified sympathy with the objects of rebellion could possibly be given, and it is presented in ample time to open the eyes of the many honest and loyal men who, in the ranks of the so called Democracy, have been led along with the assurance that their leaders were sound patriots—only differing with the Administration as to certain questions of policy. When the case comes to be tried at the ballot box in November, we shall find very few men who will vote to tax themselves and their posterity for unnumbered generations to pay for the imported weapons by which their kindred have been murdered, their hearths made desolate, and their country placed upon the verge of ruin. When the viper we have once warmed into life repays kindness with a deadly sting, its restoration to our bosoms would be to merit and invite destruction.

A complimentary dinner was tendered by Thomas Smith, Esq., of the "Empire," to Capt. Olney and his command at the Dalles on Monday. A good time was had. During the detachment's first dress parade on the same day, a flag was presented by Mrs. Berry, in behalf of the ladies of the Dalles, and received by Capt. Olney in behalf of his command. The speeches are said to have been excellent, and the flag a fine one.

THE CAMANCHE.—The building of this long delayed monitor has at last commenced in earnest, and the contractors assure the public that nothing shall now prevent her speedy completion. More time has been fooled away in quarrels over her sections than will be required to put her together.

Governor Gibbs was to deliver the address at the laying of the corner stone for the new University building at Salem, yesterday. From the warm interest His Excellency takes in the cause of education, we have no doubt his effort upon the occasion was interesting, able and instructive.

The water in the river in front of Sacramento City is represented as very low.

A NEW PRETENDER.—The Paris correspondent of the London [illegible] [illegible]:

A trial has just come off before the Court of [illegible] [illegible] remarkable less on its intrinsic merits than by the strange [illegible] of argument [illegible] by the special pleader. The plaintiff was a furniture broker, Carpentier, who sued an opera dancer, Mademoiselle D'Arque, for the possession of a puppy, one of a brace, the offspring of his King Charles and her [illegible] French pug, which had littered at her domicil. Carpentier urged that the puppies ought not to be monopolized by the single owner of one parent, and called on the tribunal to adjudicate to him half the property. No small display of [illegible] [illegible] with reference to Justinian's code, the Pandects and the Mosaic Law diversified the course of advocacy on either side, but defendant's counsel traveled out of the record for an unexpected precedent in the slave States of America. The offspring of a female slave belongs by right under that great [illegible] institution to the absolute property of a planter, irrespective of paternity altogether; and if there be any disgrace in the parallel, or in its being propounded before a French provincial law court in such an instance as this, the infamy is chargeable on another hemisphere, or if in Europe, on Spain alone.

HOW PREPARED COFFEES ARE MADE.—The editor of the Baltimore American, who admits himself to be a great lover of coffee, says he has recently received two serious checks to his enthusiasm. One was the assurance of an old traveller from the East that his Mocha was not Mocha, and the other is related below:

Visiting recently the Commissary Department of one of our large military hospitals, we noticed several barrels of dried coffee grounds, the purpose whereof excited our curiosity. The polite Commissary informed us that they received twelve dollars a barrel for the grounds, and thus add materially to the "Slush Fund." But "what is it purchased for?" we persisted. "Well," said he hesitatingly, "it is rearomatized by the transforming hand of modern chemistry, and put up in pound papers which are decorated with attractive labels and high sounding names, and sold at prices which create astonishment at the small margin left for profit."

HAVEN'T SEEN HIS UNCLE.—Christopher C. Hewitt, Chief Justice of Washington Territory, returned recently from Washington, where he has been engaged for some time in securing legislation of vital importance in connection with the powers of the Executive of the Territory and the good of the Union cause. He visited Sacramento on his return home and intimated that he was completely successful in his efforts. Having formerly been a resident of Illinois he was well acquainted with the President and passed many hours of familiar intercourse with him. According to his account, Uncle Abe was as fond as ever of relating stories and uttering quaint sayings. It appeared a politician from Washington Territory, whom the President and Judge Hewitt both knew, had been a constant caller at the White House to solicit some favor, but had all at once ceased his visits and bored the President no longer. Soon after, Hewitt met the President, when the latter remarked, "Where is your friend [illegible]? I haven't seen his nose around here for some time."—Sac. Union.

REMARKABLE.—Rev. John E. Murphy writes to the Oregon Statesman concerning a neighbor of his as follows:

Elijah Davidson, now living in Monmouth, Polk county, was 82 years old last February; he lived with his wife, who died last March, over 62 years; he began to preach the Gospel about 60 years ago; he raised twelve children, six girls and six boys, half of each have black hair and half red; alternately; only three of his children dead; has had 58 grand children, 61 living; 32 great grand children, 26 living; 6 great, great grand children—136 in all. Father Davidson is hale and hearty and bids fair to live much longer. He has always been proverbial for temperate habits and early rising.

The Copperhead papers in the Atlantic cities, in speaking of the proceedings of Congress, use the adjective "Federal," as for instance, the "Federal" Senate and "Federal" House, showing that they recognize the existence of Confederate legislative bodies of that ilk. They should say—"our" Confederate Congress, and "their" Federal Congress, and they would then be better understood.

During the battle of the Wilderness, two men of the 20th Massachusetts were struggling for a rebel flag which they had simultaneously seized, when a shot cut the staff in two, leaving the flag and part of the staff in the hands of one of them. "Bedad," said the other, as he coolly resumed his loading and firing, "the rebels have decided for us this time."

FINED.—The Recorder at the Dalles on Monday fined the Circus Company $50 and costs for exhibiting without a license. The fine was subsequently reduced by order of the Common Council to $5 and costs.

Capt. Olney's cavalry detachment, forty men exclusive of officers, marched out from the Dalles on Tuesday afternoon. They will no doubt give a good account of their time while out.

Lieut. C. D. Emory, of the Ninth Infantry, who went East to take Ridgeley Greathouse to Fort Lafayette, has been attached to the staff of Gen. Meade, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel.

The amendment to the Constitution of the State of Connecticut to enable citizen soldiers to vote has passed both branches of the Legislature and only requires the vote of the people for approval.

John P. Hale will probably succeed the late Joshua R. Giddings as United States Consul General to Canada. The salary is $4,000 per annum, with perquisites.

The State Teacher's institute will meet in Albany on the 2d of August. Miss Bolt of Salem and Mrs. Godley of Albany have been engaged to provide music for the occasion. The citizens of Albany will provide for the entertainment of those who attend free of charge.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. T. T. Crum, living some eight miles from Salem, was thrown from his horse on Sunday morning, dislocating his hip and otherwise injuring him.

HELD TO BAIL.—S. W. Sawyer, who in an affray at Kirbyville on the 7th inst., killed a man named Hughey, has been held to bail in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance at the next term of the Josephine county Circuit Court.

Rev. J. D. Driver, of Corvallis, will deliver the annual address at the State Fair.

NEW YORK, July 19.—A Niagara Falls telegram says C. C. Clay, of Alabama, Jacob Thompson, of Mississippi, Beverly Tucker, of Virginia, and Geo. N. Sanders are at that place devising a basis of action for the Chicago Convention which shall end the war and secure a triumph to the Democratic Party. Though not claiming to speak for the seceded States as yet, they hold out strong hopes of getting their assent. The propositions are believed to be as follows:

1st. The return of the seceded States to the Union.
2d. The assumption of the Confederate debt.
3d. The recognition of the freedom of the slaves actually emancipated in the progress of the war and the status quo ante bellum as to all others.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Tribune's special says Sunday evening our forces were seven miles beyond Strasburg in pursuit of the rebels who are making rapid time up the Shenandoah Valley towards Staunton. A number of stragglers were captured. Our cavalry was sent to the rear of the heavy firing heard on the 17th at Great Falls, in the direction of Edward's Ferry. It was supposed to be a collision between our advance and the rebels' rear.

The Provisional Brigade organized in the defense of Washington, composed of the slightly wounded in the various hospitals, has been abandoned. Most of the men have been sent to their regiments in the field.

The rebels' loss in killed, wounded and prisoners in the demonstration on Washington, is over 2,000. The prisoners represent 63 different regiments and belong to five different divisions.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Herald's James river correspondent, under date of 14th, says that the rebels shelled Gen. R. B. Foster's headquarters at Deep Bottom that day for more than an hour. The range was so accurate that the headquarters were moved seven times. A number of shells went through the General's tent. They also opened fire on a gunboat and the pontoon bridge. The gunboat returned the fire and soon silenced the battery. Grant was having an interview with Foster when the shelling took place.

The Tribune's Washington special says it is thought that Secretary Fessenden will very soon go to the people for a loan at par at six per cent. The necessity for action is imminent, for the amount of suspended requisitions on the Treasury is nine millions.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Contradictory reports in regard to another rebel invasion of Kentucky have been received.

One report says the force, variously estimated at from 5000 to 15,000, entered the State via Pound Gap two days since and are now at Martinsburg, Floyd county. The military are actively engaged in preparing a warm reception.

A Cincinnati telegram says there is authority for contradicting the reported invasion of Kentucky, but cannot determine as to the truth or falsity of the report.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 18.—Richmond papers contain the following telegrams:

ATLANTA, July 12.—The enemy are in position on the north side of the Chattahoochie. There is some firing between the sharpshooters with occasionally artillery firing without much damage.

ATLANTA, July 14.—The enemy are re-crossing on the right in the rear of Roseville. A portion of the Yankee army is on the south side of the river. General Sherman's headquarters are at Vining's Station.

The Atlanta Confederacy says:

"We shall not attempt to lull our readers into fancied security by the declaration that Atlanta is not in imminent danger. Its capture however cannot be regarded as a foregone conclusion. If Johnston cannot make a successful battle or hold the enemy in check along the Chattahoochie, he cannot do so anywhere below, and can only temporarily check them, which, in that event would be the capture of Atlanta,—placing it at the feet of its rapacious invaders to stay their appetites for conquest. Doubtless the Federal Government would be satisfied with the capture of Atlanta which they would garrison, fortify, and use as a base of future operations."

The Richmond Whig of the 15th says Sheridan with two brigades of cavalry is moving towards Portsmouth. Some think they are going towards North Carolina, others, that they will embark at Portsmouth for Maryland.

LOUISVILLE, July 18.—The Journal is advised that early on the morning of the 15th a large rebel force, said to be commanded by Forrest, captured the stockade at Brownsboro, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. Most of the garrison escaped. The rebels then marched on Huntsville and after a sharp skirmish drove in the Federal pickets. Our troops numbered 5,000 and are strongly fortified. The rebel force was estimated from 8,000 to 10,000. Additional troops are being sent to Huntsville.

CAIRO, July 19.—All accounts of Gen. Slocum's expedition in Mississippi are recorded as being very meagre. The rebels claim to have gained a decided victory. They say the road of Federal retreat was lined for miles with the Federal dead, literally strung with dead negroes, horses, arms, etc.

Vicksburg dates to the 15th say Slocum has been reinforced, and are again marching to the interior.

ST. LOUIS, July 19.—The Union publishes an extract from a public letter from New Orleans the 11th which says: Fifteen thousand men would start from that city on the once in steamers that day taking 15 days rations and ammunition. There is now a large number of gunboats on Lake Ponchartrain and more vessels have been added to the fleet off Mobile. Some think the expedition is intended to capture Mobile and so command the Alabama river and establish a base of supplies for Sherman at Selma. Others believe the troops are destined for Fortress Monroe.

Foreign News.

FARTHER POINT, July 18.—The Damascus from Liverpool the 7th and Londonderry the 8th has arrived.

Rumors favorable to Grant caused an increase in the Federal loan 2 or 3 per cent.

The Times in reviewing Gen. Grant's position says it is difficult not to conclude that the campaign is now reduced to the question Petersburg or nothing.

It is reported that the Yeddo, lately built at Bordeaux, will be completed at Amsterdam and will be commanded by Semmes. She is a large vessel and is capable of resisting the attack and running away from all such vessels as the Kearsarge or Alabama.

A private telegram from Copenhagen says:

It has been determined by a council of the ministry to try and direct the negotiation with Prussia on the basis that Denmark shall be admitted into the German Confederation as the only means of saving it from monarchy. This is regarded as highly probable.

BEAUTIFUL MUSIC.—Serene nights are called "the music of the heavens," but when to that is added the harmony of the dipping oar on the placid water in moonlight, when the clamorous noises of the day are stilled, and in the peace which covers all things the boating is refreshed by the admirable songs of a choir of ladies voices, a mysterious influence enters into the heart, which tranquilizes and purifies its every emotion. The evenings of late have been happily improved by our citizen singers, and the music that has arisen from the small pleasure parties on the Willamette river, has been appreciated by the many who heard it.

EAGLE CREEK ROCK.—A very handsome specimen of gold bearing quartz rock was on exhibition at the Dennison House yesterday, which was taken from a late discovery in the Eagle Creek Mountains, Baker county, Oregon. It seems that the upper country is continuously affording proofs of its hidden treasures, and the end is not yet. This specimen is filled with gold and without hesitation we favor the opinion that the new locality is destined to make some men rich.

FINE GOLD.—Tracy & King made an assay yesterday of the 61 [illegible] 100 ounces of amalgam, from 1500 lbs. of the Ruckle vein quartz, of the Rockfellow lode, which was spoken of in this paper recently, and it has yielded a brick of the finest gold ever assayed in Oregon, being 9[illegible]0 fine, worth over $19 [illegible] per ounce. As we predicted long since, the men who have much of that rock have their pile, to a dead certainty. Col. Ruckle has the brick, and it is a "perfect" specimen.

IMPERIAL STANDARD MILLS.—These mills, which are acknowledged to be among the finest on the Pacific Coast, are located at Oregon City, and have lately passed from the possession of Daniel Harvey, the old proprietor. They were purchased by Mr. LaRocque of Butteville, for the sum of $41,000, afterwards Messrs. Savier, Burnside & Co., of this city, purchased a one half interest.

ARRIVAL OF THE COUCH.—By the arrival of the steamer John H. Couch last evening, we have news that our information concerning the arrival of the bark Industry, at Columbia river bar, was incorrect, she had not arrived up to yesterday morning, when the Couch left, after waiting over one day.

HEAVY ROPES.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt brought from the Dalles, last evening, the O. S. N. Co.'s heavy cable, or hawser and blocks, which are to be used at their lone yard, below this city, in raising a boat bottom on [illegible] the water, which is to be constructed into a spile driver.

RIPE APPLES.—The Portland fruit market is at present supplied with the choice varieties of early harvest apples. The prices are very moderate considering the season, and most persons are enabled to enjoy the luxury.

THE bark Almatia, A. B. Richardson master, sailed from San Francisco for Portland, on the 12th inst.

We are indebted to Jul[illegible] Deady for a copy of the following Act of C[ongress] approved June 8, 1864, which is [illegible] by the Treasury Department for [illegible] and government of the Officers [illegible], supervising and Local Inspe[ctors] [illegible] steamboats, and others concerned:

AN ACT to create an additional [illegible] inspector of steamboats for [illegible] Memphis, Tennessee, and [illegible] for the district of Oregon, [illegible]

Be it enacted by the [illegible] of Representatives of the United States [illegible] in Congress assembled, That [illegible] appointed [illegible] and appointed, in the mode [illegible] law, and who shall be paid [illegible] compensation as is now paid, one [illegible] inspector of steamboats, at Portland [illegible] district of Oregon, and two [illegible] of Memphis, Tenn., at an [illegible] of $700, to be paid as provided [illegible] inspectors [illegible] the duties and be subject to [illegible] August 30th 1852.

SEC. 2. And [illegible] That so much of said act as [illegible] of two local inspectors [illegible] district of Wheeling, [illegible] compensation [illegible]

SEC. 3. [illegible] each engineer and [illegible] is enjoined of said act [illegible] by any [illegible] $10 to be accounted for [illegible]

SEC. 4. And be it [illegible] the 42d section of the act of [illegible] construed as to require the [illegible] boiler, in the manner prescribed [illegible] vessel propelled in whole or [illegible] engaged as a ferry boat, tug, or tow boat, in all cases where [illegible] States, such vessels may be engaged [illegible] commerce with foreign nations or among [illegible] States.

SEC. 5. And be it further [illegible] That all engineers of ferry boats, tug boats, towing boats or canal boats subject to [illegible] shall be classified and licensed [illegible] are pilots and engineers [illegible] 1852.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the fees for inspection required by the 31st section of the act of August 30, [1852], the following shall be paid: For each vessel [of] 100 tons or under $25, and in addition thereto [for] each 100 tons over the first 100 tons, $5.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all parts of the act aforesaid, which are amended by or are inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

NEW SUBMARINE BATTERY.—A submarine battery passed through [illegible] from Massachusetts which [illegible] manufactured. It is some new invention [illegible] in the East river. It is thirty [illegible] upwards of fifteen tons. When in [illegible] under water with no communication with the surface except through air tubes. It has very small glass window in the sides through which it is claimed, the operators are enabled to see a distance of two hundred and forty feet in every direction. It is propelled by six men, who work at the crank. The machine is what might be called "cigar shape," and can be raised to the surface or lowered to the depths of the sea at pleasure. If successful it must prove a formidable weapon to an enemy's shipping.—New Haven Journal, June 17th.

The rebel papers state that Stonewall Jackson and other of their Generals were shot by their own men. This is ominous. No such accidents—if they were accidents—ever happened in our army. Robespierre was guillotined by the very men he had deluded into revolution. Let Jeff Davis take care.—New York Herald.

McDowell for protection for the route from Placerville to Virginia, and that officer telegraphed to Gen. Wright in Sacramento, to furnish whatever force may be necessary for the purpose.—Appeal.

MISTAKE.—The Alta says that Fremont is "a native of South Carolina," and the Bee says he is a native of Montreal, Canada.

Forty thousand soldiers' letters weighing more than sixty tons, were forwarded North from Washington on the 17th and 18th of June.

The Philadelphians have presented the wife of Gen. Meade with a house.

We are indebted to Judge Deady for a copy of the following Act of Congress, approved July 2, 1864, which is published by the Treasury Department for the information and government of the Officers of the Customs, Supervising and Local Inspectors of Steamboats, and all others concerned:

An Act to create an additional supervising inspector of steamboats for the collection district of Memphis, Tennessee, and two local inspectors for the district of Oregon, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be designated and appointed in the mode prescribed by law, and who shall be paid the same annual compensation as is now paid one additional supervising inspector of steamboats at Portland, in the collection district of Oregon, and two for the collection district of Memphis, Tenn., at an annual compensation of $700, to be paid as provided by law, as in case of other inspectors; and said inspectors shall perform the duties and be subject to the steamboat act of August 30th, 1852.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of said act as provides for the appointment of two local inspectors of steamboats in the district of Wheeling, on the Ohio river, and for their compensation, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That each engineer and pilot licensed according to the provisions of said act, shall pay for every certificate granted by any inspector or inspectors the sum of $10, to be accounted for in the mode provided by law.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the 42d section of the act of August 30, 1852, be so construed as to require the construction of hull and boiler, in the manner prescribed by that act, of every vessel propelled in whole or in part by steam, and engaged as a ferry boat, tug or towing boat, or canal boat, in all cases where, under the laws of the United States, such vessels may be engaged in the commerce with foreign nations, or among the several States.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That all engineers of ferry boats, tug boats, towing boats or canal boats subject to inspection by this act, shall be classified and licensed in the same manner as are pilots and engineers by said act of August 30, 1852.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That, in lieu of the fees for inspection required by the 31st section of the act of August 30, 1852, the following shall be paid: For each vessel of 100 tons or under, $25, and in addition thereto for each 100 tons over the first 100 tons, $5.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That all parts of the act aforesaid, which are suspended by or are inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Inability to Sleep.—After the fatigues of the day's labor, how refreshing and necessary is a quiet sleep! Yet how many are unable to enjoy it! To such, whether the cause be nervous irritability, disordered digestion, or insufficient nutrition, the PERUVIAN SYRUP offers a precious remedy, quieting, strengthening and reorganizing all the powers.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous; they give a healthy tone to the system; relieve all morbid matter, and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. ja26d1m

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of those affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.

Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

A GREAT INDUSTRIAL FAIR

To be opened in the City of
SAN FRANCISCO,
On the 30th day of August, 1864,
Under the direction of the Mechanics' Institute,
OF SAN FRANCISCO.

The attention of the public is invited to this great display of our skill, industry and enterprise. To explain the objects and benefits of the Exhibition, of the preparations for holding it, and the regulations for its management, a Circular has been published by the Institute in letter form and widely distributed. It may be seen at any office of Wells, Fargo & Co., at any Post Office, and at many of the country stores, throughout the Pacific States and Territories.

The various Transportation Companies will, with commendable liberality, transport all articles intended exclusively for exhibition, FREE OF CHARGE; and Wells, Fargo & Co., in like manner, will take charge of them.

All articles forwarded should be labeled "For the Industrial Exhibition," and be directed to C. B. PORTER, Agent, and all communications be addressed to

WILLIAM PATTON,
'June 6th, td Corresponding Secretary.

WHAT KILLED HIM!

DR. HALL, IN HIS "JOURNAL OF HEALTH," speaking of the death of Washington Irving asks the above question, and adds: "He might well have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

HE HAD A COLD!

which by some injudicious prescription had been converted into an Asthma. Who gave that prescription or what it was, the outside world may never know." Let me say to Dr Hall that that "prescription" was not for that is an article that does not engender heart disease, nor is it productive of any Asthmatic affections. On the contrary, it will cure such affections; and as for

COUGHS AND COLDS,

The world never saw a better remedy, and never will, until Nature produces some new ingredient out of which to prepare it. Don't be afraid to use it freely. Every article in it is from Nature's own Laboratory—the same today as they were a thousand years ago—all calculated to soothe, heal and strengthen. There is no

BETTER FAMILY MEDICINE!

Keep it in the House, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indication of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do that have become acquainted with its merits. REDINGTON & CO. Agents

Ministering Angels

"Mother, has the dove that nestled
Lovingly upon your breast,
Folded up its little pinion,
And in darkness gone to rest?"

"Nay, the grave is dark and dreary
But the lost one is not there,
Hear'st not thou its gentle whisper
Floating on the ambient air?

"It is near thee, gentle mourner
Near thee at the evening hour,
Its soft kiss is in the zephyr,
It looks up from every flower

"And when night's dark shadows flying,
Low thou bendest thee in prayer,
And thy heart feels nearest heaven,
Then thy angel babe is there"

Oh! the friends! the friends we've cherished,
How we weep to see them die
All unthinking they're the angels
That will guide us to the sky

The Ragged Soldier.

Just at the close of the Revolutionary war, there was seen somewhere in one of the small towns of central Massachusetts, a ragged and forlorn-looking soldier coming up the dusty street. He looked about on the corn-fields tasseling for the harvest, on the rich, bright patches of wheat ready for the sickle, and on the green potato fields, with curious eyes—so at least thought Mr Towne, who was walking leisurely behind him, going home from the reaping to his supper. The latter was a stout farmer, dressed in home made brown linen trowsers without suspenders, vest or coat. The ragged soldier stopped under the shade of a great sugar maple, and Mr Towne overtaking him, stopped also

"Home from the war?" he said.

"Just out of the British clutches," replied the man "I've been a prisoner for years." He rejoined suddenly, "Can you tell me who lives in the next house? Is it yours?"

"No," replied Mr. Towne. "Tompkins lives there. That house and farm used to belong to Jones, but he was shot at Bunker Hill, and his widow married again."

The soldier leaned against the tree—"What kind of a man is he? Would they be likely to let a poor soldier have something to eat?"

"If Tompkins is out, you'd be treated first rate there Mrs Tompkins is a nice woman, but he is the meanest cur that ever gnawed a bone He is a terrible surly neighbor, and he leads her a dog's life She missed it marrying the fellow, but she had a hard time of it with the farm after Jones went off soldiering, and when my son came back and said he was dead—he saw him bleeding to death on the battle field—she broke right down, and this Tompkins came along and got into work for her, and he laid himself out to do first rate He somehow got on the blind side [illegible] and when he offered himself to [illegible] I advised her to have him, and I'm sorry [illegible] You had better come home with [illegible] I always have a bite for any poor fellow [illegible] has fought for his country"

"Thank you kindly" returned the soldier, "but Mrs Tompkins is a distant—a sort of old acquaintance. The fact is, I used to know her first husband, and I guess I'll call there"

Mr Towne watched him as he went up to [illegible] and knocked, and saw that he was [illegible] Mrs Tompkins

"[illegible] sweetheart of hers, maybe" said Mr [illegible] nodding to himself. "He [illegible] poor woman, she has a hard [illegible] now Then Mr Towne went [illegible] supper, and we will go in with [illegible]

"[illegible] give a poor soldier a mouthful [illegible] asked of the pale, nervous woman [illegible] door

"My [illegible] does not allow me to give [illegible] travelers," she said "but I always [illegible] the soldiers coming back, and [illegible] some supper if you won't be long [illegible] and she wiped her eyes with her [illegible] and blue checked apron, and set with [illegible] providing refreshments for the [illegible] who had thrown himself in the [illegible] with his head leaning on [illegible] seemed too tired even to remove [illegible] face

"[illegible] have you eat, and wouldn't [illegible] anything," said she, in a [illegible] way "but you will eat quick, [illegible] every minute he will [illegible]

[illegible] drew his chair to the table, keeping [illegible] as though he belonged [illegible], but that could not [illegible] do not go to the wars. [illegible] bread and cold meat, [illegible] about it

[illegible] fidgeted "Dear me," she [illegible] knew, he wouldn't [illegible] to let Tompkins come in and [illegible] here!" She went and looked [illegible] window uneasily, but the soldier [illegible] meal coming to a close.

[illegible] some vinegar on his [illegible] potatoes. I can't ask him to [illegible] potatoes away in his hand Oh, [illegible] how he is? Hasn't the man any [illegible] At last she said mildly, "I am sorry for you, sir, but couldn't you let me spread some bread and butter and cut a piece of meat to take away with you? My husband will use abusive language to you if he finds you here"

Before the soldier could reply, footsteps were heard on the door stone at the back door, and Tompkins entered He stopped short, and looked at the soldier as a strange dog might look Then he broke out in a tone between a growl and a roar

"Hey day, Molly, a pretty piece of business What have I told you time and again, madam? And you, you lazy, thieving vagabond, let me see you clear out of my house and off my land a good deal quicker than you come on the premises"

"Your house! and your land!" exclaimed the soldier, starting suddenly up, erect and tall, and dashing off his hat with a quick, fiery gesture His eyes flashed like lightning, and his lips quivered with indignation as he confronted the astonished Tompkins The latter was evidently afraid of him, and his wife had given a sudden nervous shriek when the soldier first started to his feet and flung off his hat, and had sunk trembling and half fainting into a chair, for she recognized him

"You hain't any business to interfere between me and my wife," said Tompkins, sullenly, cowed by the attitude of the soldier

"Your wife!" exclaimed the soldier, with the concentration of contempt expressed in his voice, and pointing to him with an indignant finger

"Who are you?" asked Tompkins, with an air of effrontery.

"I am Harry Jones, since you ask," replied the soldier, "the owner of this house and this land, which you will leave this very hour As for Molly," softening his tone as he turned to the woman now sobbing hysterically, "she shall choose between us"

"Oh Harry!" sobbed she, while Tompkins stood dumb with astonishment, "take me—save me!"

With one step he was at her side, holding her in his arms!

"What did you mean, treating this poor child so? Did you think because she had no earthly protector, that there was not a God in heaven to take her part against you?"

"No man who is so cruel to a woman is ever truly brave, and Tompkins slunk away like a beaten spaniel

The next day had not passed away before everybody in the town knew that Harry Jones had come home alive and well to rescue his much enduring, patient wife from a worse constraint than that of a British prison but what they all said and what Harry said, and how Molly felt, I must leave you to imagine, for here the legend ends

Women can keep a secret but it generally takes a good many of them to do it

We respect him who can more readily make a hymn than a joke, a grace at meat than a dinner speech

In earthly governments "divine rights" so called, are generally the bitterest of human wrongs.

Whenever we utter a true word, instantly we feel 'tis God's not ours

It is often the case that men for the sake of getting a living, forget to live

A lazy farmer is virtually dead and his farm wears weeds in mourning for him

It is observable that many persons always sigh deeply in the act of thanking God

Innocence is no security against temptation, it is exactly what temptation conquers

The world always receives talent with open arms but often does not know what to do with genius

Mr Beecher says there are many persons who think that Sunday is a sponge with which to wipe out the sins of the week

As it is man's destiny to be ruled by woman, he should, for his own sake, render her as fit for the task as possible

The door between us and Heaven cannot be opened if that between us and our fellow men is shut

Little Daisy's mamma was trying to explain to her the meaning of a smile "O, yes! I know," said the child, "it is a whisper of a laugh."

As an example that "the evil that hoops do lives after them," a gentleman of New York lately complained of injuries inflicted on horses which have been badly cut up by becoming entangled in these nets which have been cast into the streets

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known to the medical profession that Protoxide of Iron is destroyed even by a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown, and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

without a solvent This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Prof Booth U S Mint, Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly" July 6, 1860, page 76)

It is valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full strong and florid
